

Shunji Shimoyoshi

(916)257-1505 • sshimoyoshi@ucsb.edu • www.linkedin.com/in/shunji-shimoyoshi

EDUCATION

University of California, Santa Barbara (UCSB)

B.S. Environmental Studies

Minor Earth Science

Expected June 2027

EXPERIENCE

Undergraduate Research Assistant, Carla D'Antonio VEG Lab

Ecology, Evolution and Marine Biology Department | University of California, Santa Barbara

Fall 2025 - Spring 2026

- Undergraduate research assistant working in the D'Antonio Lab, with a focus on restoration of degraded coastal landscapes by invasive Carpobrotus edulis
- Analyzed soil samples from different sites to examine changes in soil chemistry and composition after iceplant invasion

Student Worker, Cheadle Center for Biodiversity and Ecological Restoration

University of California, Santa Barbara

Spring 2026

- Student worker assisting in ecological restoration and vegetation monitoring on restoration sites
- Identification of California native plants and non-native plants in restoration work

APAPA Community Engagement Volunteer

Asian Pacific Island American Public Affairs Association | Folsom, CA

June 2021 - July 2022

- Lead efforts to clean, maintain, and improve community parks, roads, and trails in coordination with the City of Folsom
- Worked with other students to tackle tasks efficiently and thoroughly

Graduate and Student Council President

Port of Sacramento Japanese School | Sacramento, CA

April 2011 - March 2023

- Attended Japanese school every Saturday for 12 years, finishing the high school curriculum in March 2023
- Student council president from 2022-2023
 - Helped teachers and staff in planning school events and helped finance them through fundraisers
 - Fostered engagement with younger students during school assemblies and carried out teacher responsibilities during morning roll call

SKILLS

Programs: ArcGIS (proficient), RStudio (intermediate)

Languages: Japanese (fluent); German (intermediate)